Senator Sullivan Says He Wants 80 Cent Gas and Free Roads.

Did Cockran Write Dunphy's Letter of Resignation.

Report Says So, and that Croker Has the Original.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Senator
"Dry Dollar" Sullivan, of New York
City, arrived from the Arkansas Hot Springs to-day. He spent a month

He told "The Evening World" correspondent that one of the first measures he will introduce will provide for a uni-form rate of 80 cents per 1,000 feet for gas in New York City. The Senator says he has an offer from one party of New York capitalists to furnish gas at $1 per 1,000 feet, and a conditional promise from another of an fo-cent rate.

Another bill the Bowery Senator pro poses to introduce contemplates the abolition of every toll road in the State. "I'm going to introduce that toll-gate bill at once," said Tim, "if some farmer don't. It's time we had free roads." If Congressman Cockran accepts Rich

If Congressman Cockran accepts Richard Croker's chancenge to appear before the Executive Committee of Tammany Hall to-morrow, and either admits or denies the charge of having "said things" about the ex-bose, he will in all probability be asked if he did not draft the letter that Congressman Dunphy sent to Croker in resigning his seat.

It is reported aere that Croker has the best evidence obtainable that the Congressman did draft the letters, and, indeed, it is said he has the original of it. Congressman Dunphy's letter to Croker contained some vigorous comments on Croker's administration of the affairs of the Wigwam, and the ex-boss is said to have traced its authorship to Cockran.

It is the purpose of Croker, according Daniel Griffin on the Grant to Adi rondack Railroad.

ALBANY, Dec. 28 .- Regarding the ac on of the Forestry Commission last night in granting the application of the Adirondack Railroad for land privileges, Daniel Griffin, who opposed the grant, said this morning that he did not believe it would hold. "I think," he said, "the Attorney-General will decide that Board has no direct jurisdiction in the matter, and that the grant will not

At the rooms of the Forestry Commis-sion, the Secretary said: "The Board made the grant under the law that gives it power to construct roads or paths. The grant does not give the Adirondack people any land, but simply the right of way, and so does not need any sanction by the Land Board, nor does it violate any statute."

(Special to The Evening World.)
RONDOUT, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The letter sent to John D. Linson by Gov.-elect Morton, asking him to resign his position as one of the three Commiss of Statutory Revision, has caused much comment in this city. Mr. Morton's haste to prepare the way for the appointments he proposes to make when he becomes Governor was a surprise to Mr. Linson, but his resignation was sent with good grace. Mr. Morton's letter in full was as follows:

The taxes collected within the new province are to be expended within its boundaries, the public debt and tobacco regie receiving a fixed annual sum. The judges are to be elected, but the President of the judges is to be nominated under the present system. Finally, two Government departments are to be created, namely, a Department of Public struction.

But while the work of reform is being comrades in Company C, of organized in Constantinople news has has long been a member reached here of additional disturbances been killed, while many others are said to have been severely wounded. No con firmation, however, of this story has been received as yet, and no details o the new outbreak are obtainable.

The Armenians of the Van district are said to be 'n a deplorable condition. Numbers of the inhabitants are being constantly summoned from their vil-lages by the Turks, and they are afterwards detained for examination, and are thus prevented from tilling the land is expected in 1895.
